

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/taragreycoste (LinkedIn)
www.usm.maine.edu/leadership (Company)

Top Skills

Leadership
Higher Education
Teaching

Tara Grey Coste

at Topsham

Summary

Dr. Tara Grey Coste is a Professor of Leadership Studies at the University of Southern Maine. Her work focuses on refining the training processes that enhance creativity in teams and on teaching techniques to enhance leadership abilities in multi-cultural, multi-national environments. She has published articles and presented her work in venues around the world. She is a Colleague of the Creative Education Foundation, a Visiting Scholar at Singapore Management University's Wee Kim Wee Centre for Cultural Studies, and Past-President of the American Creativity Association.

Specialties: Creative Leadership
Strategic Creativity
Creativity Across Cultures

Experience

University of Southern Maine
Professor of Leadership and Organizational Studies
1997 - Present (24 years)

ACA, ACRE, CPSI, and numerous other creativity and leadership events around the world
Speaker
1994 - Present (27 years)

Education

Michigan Technological University
PhD, Rhetoric and Technical Communication